Hussain(AS)----a missionary

Altaf Hussain

Jo Karwan-e-Azm ka Rehbar tha wo Hussain (Josh malihabadi)

Scarifying self solely serves the productive cause for social good. This good gets shaped up by instituting fair administrative system assuring imperative public values of Justice, equality, and security; much-needed legal or moral attributes for life-maintenance. However a society deprived of these values results in growing weed of evils and curses. Pertinently, the situation was same under yazid's regime where substantial principles of life had faded away. A messiah in Hussain(AS) brought an awakening moment to put into practice an order and stood against cruelty and injustice of that period. His call against repression knows no boundaries and barriers of time or space. Trustworthy leadership of Hussain(AS) had been felt much necessitated. Through peerless offering he vandalised the barbaric era of yazid to the just cause of human emancipation. Life had become aimless bruised with stigma of infamy and disrepute attached to human values and rights. HUSSAIN became salvation, turned with his sacred blood a barren land of evils and suffering, into the holy land of Karbala.

Misuse of power by yazid had triggered turbulent times, social order collapsed and human and moral values withered. A call for revival was a much-needed socialistic principle. Hussain stood against Yazid. He embarked upon a mission on institutionalizing the fair democratic system free of evils and enormity. His mission was aimed at erecting the edifice of human dignity- so gave his head not hand- to earn self actualization in eternal blessing- submitted his self to divine not devil. Hussain's activism of 'conscious raising' clearly depicts that he went to Karbala not to kill Yazid but to perform his duty of Amr-bil-MarooF. A missionary like Hussain always strives for peace and harmony and committing bloody violence is stereotype of a tyrant like yazid. Hussain set choice for yazid that raised only Hurr from unconsciousness and got real existence of essence by joining Hussain's mission.

Karbala is a divine operation conquered by Hussain, a perennial resistance movement against every kind of oppression and suppression. The ubiquitous tyranny of Yazid continues unabated and only the Hussain of times can stand against this current onslaught and barbarism.

A section of so called Muslims, totally ignorant of history and morally bankrupt, are still roaming with absurd sense about 'Hussain of Karbala'. Whose awakening call turned down the kingdom of yazid and subdued his ill-polity of autocracy and despotism. Hussain with his supreme sacrifice unshackled humanity from terrible life of bondage and slavery. Through his battle for truthfulness Hussain proved the real-estate of an individual in aiming for change and development for good cause. And if a man dies while delivering his services, he occupies a "martyrs" position. That is in real sense of nature what characterizes the singularity of a man, not what philosophy of realism has to deliver, acrimoniously construed as egoism.

Prevailing times, fraught with chaos and commotion, are reminiscent of the unprecedented and unparalleled sacred tragedy of Karbala. We need a leader like Hussain yet again who can reinquish the profanity prevailing in the society into sacred and more importantly into justice based- society. We need Hussain who alone can impinge in us the fire of martyrdom, the power of selflessness and the realization of Allah which in reality is the pinnacle of Islam.

Tribute to lord of martyrs

IIDREES RIZVI

Our history starting from Habil and kabil is the manifestation of the eternal conflict between the two poles of God and Satan i.e...HAQ and BATIL, in each period of time these two poles have disguised differently. These two elements are existing throughout the history side by side though in different faces, for example, Ibrahim and Nimrod, Moses and pharaoh, Jesus and Jahas. The battle of karbala was the result of same conflict. The karbala wasn't a battle between two individuals or two kings, it was fight between two principles HAQ and BATIL i.e... Truth and falsehood, right and wrong, justice and injustice. Imam Hussain(as) embodied the sacrifice of self, money, family, social status and challenged the BATIL. It is the verdict of Allah(swt) in surat Al Isra that BATIL is ever bound to vanish: "WA QUL JAAL HAQ WA ZAHQAL. BATILU INNAL BATILU KANA ZAHUKA."

In karbala HAQ was elevated and BATIL was eradicated only when there lay Imam Hussain(as), 17 heroes among his brothers, his sons, his brother's sons and nearly 60 gaint companions all were beheaded on the extended desert. The martyrdom of Hussain (as) in the battle of karbala was actually the death of Yazid and his regime, as observed by a poet:

"QATL E HUSSAIN ASL MAIN MARGH E YAZID HAI
ISLAM ZINDA HOTA HAI HAR KARBALA KE BAAD"

And till now karbala never passed away. Its sun never sets in the horizon of history. Its anguish can never be effaced from the conscience of freemen by the collective conspiracy of tyrants. Imam Hussain's voice is still echoing the ears of mankind.

INTELLECTUALS

Rahil Hussain Dar
Srinagar

The intellectuals is a minority group of people, who by their deep thoughts, knowledge, keen insight and broader outlook of mind shape the destiny of the majority of people. According to the great scholars there are only 5% intellectuals in the whole world, 90% of the population includes the common folk and the rest 5% are considered as mad or psychotics. The intellectuals possess really broad outlook, far-sightedness and wisdom which the common people lack. As far as the limpany of the intellectuals is concerned, they are generally revolutionists. They are like puzzles, because their character isn't understood. But their dogmas and vision are exemplary for the whole mankind. They are the framers of the destiny of a nation. The barriers that hinder the achievement and advancement are mitigated by the vision of intellectuals.

We need intellectuals in every sphere of our society to progress scientifically, to break down the stereotypic beliefs and March on the roads of progress and advancement. This is exactly the need of the hour. Intellectuals are the backbones of social reforms who continue to oppose the mythical ideology. They have the guts to go against the current. The best illustrations or examples of such personalities whom we could call intellectuals are imam e Khomeini (R.A), Allama Iqbal (R.A), Tolstoy, Moulana Rumi (R.A), Galelio, Dalailama, Leo Tolstoy, Nelson Mandela, etc who by their knowledge, vision, prescience and deep insight guided the people to fight for a cause. Intellectuals play a key role in shaping and safeguarding the society. Ideologists whether social, religious or belonging to any other system work on draft mechanism of society. Such people are always opposed, oppressed and rejected by the common people at the initial stage but are accepted honoured and followed by the masses when they weigh their wisdom. In every age and era, intellectuals have safeguarded the rational concepts of civilised man and have antagonised the orthodoxy of times. Slowly and steadily they shine, glow and offer the fruits of their knowledge to the whole society cutting across the lines of any discrimination or demarcation.

ISIS is an anti-Islam organisation: Mehbooba Mufti

Adopt Vajpayee's Policy to Solve K-Issue, Attended HT Leadership Summit

Wilayat Times

Peoples Democratic Party president Mehbooba Mufti Saturday said the Kashmir issue could be best resolved through former Prime Minister, Atal Bihari Vajpayee's policy of accommodating Kashmiris and involving Pakistan. Speaking at the Hindustan Times Leadership Summit, Mehbooba said, "ISIS is anti-Islam organization." On Intolerance Debate Mehbooba said, "what is happening in Syria, Iraq, Afghanistan and other places is that the fringe elements are misusing the name of Islam." "And in our country, there are fringe elements who are misusing the name of Hinduism. And they also compare it with nationalism, which is worse," she said adding if you ask me to pick up a quality of Hinduism, it is tolerance. "And our country is known for tolerance." She said it was important for the Union government to deal with such fringe elements "who are misusing the name of Hinduism and comparing it to nationalism". "ISIS is doing everything which goes against the basic tenets of Islam. I don't think Kashmiris will follow what ISIS stands for. ISIS stands for murder, rapes, plundering. How can this be Islam? Islam is the total antithesis of what they are doing," she said.

Mehbooba, however, blamed the rise of the IS on the military campaigns waged by the US in Afghanistan and Iraq, which had created a "feeling of victimhood" among Muslims. "It is important for the world community not to blame Muslims for the actions of the IS," she added.

"Indian Muslims need to be saluted. They didn't come to Kashmir - people came from all over and picked up guns but not Indian Muslims. We shouldn't be so influenced by the IS that we start suspecting all Muslims," she said.

On Media's Projection of Kashmir "Showing youngsters with Pakistani flag has become old-fashioned in Kashmir. So now they are shown with ISIS flags. Those youngsters don't even know what they are doing. The media needs to introspect. No one shows August 15 celebrations in Kashmir," she said.
